

Global Summit on Disinformation 2023: Open Call for Fact-Checking Projects

Organized by the Inter American Press Association, Fundación para el Periodismo (Bolivia), and Proyecto Desconfío (Argentina), the 3rd edition of the Global Summit on Disinformation 2023 is preparing to bring together the brightest and most committed minds in the battle against disinformation. September 27-28 will mark a milestone in the global media calendar, bringing together more than 20 international speakers in a virtual platform for knowledge sharing and collaboration.

With the support of Google News Initiative, International Fact-Checking Network, United Nations Argentina, and BancoSol de Bolivia, this virtual, free, and bilingual edition of the Summit opens its doors to a global audience with prior registration.

Open call for Fact-Checkers

One of the highlights of the Summit program is the segment dedicated to presenting fact-checking projects from around the world, a unique opportunity to explore and disseminate cutting-edge solutions in the fight against disinformation. This exclusive segment seeks to invite media and fact-checking platforms to present their completed or ongoing projects, as well as to share successful experiences and technological developments that have significantly boosted the detection and verification of false information.

This year, the Summit is honored to have the leadership of Bolivia Verifica (Bolivia) and Infoveritas (Spain), outstanding leaders in the field of fact-checking, who will be in charge of the selection of the projects presented.

The Open Call for Fact-Checking Projects will be open until Sunday, August 27th at 23.59 hs (Bolivian time UTC -4). The selected projects will be notified by email and through the official Summit channels starting September 5, 2023.

If your media or organization is committed to the search for truth and the eradication of disinformation, we invite you to carefully review the terms and conditions of the Open Call, and complete the registration form, available at the following link.

The 3rd edition of the Global Summit on Disinformation is supported by the International Center for Journalists (ICFJ), the National Press Association of Chile, GABO Foundation, DW Akademie, Infoveritas, Asociación Colombiana de Medios de Información (AMI), Asociación de Entidades Periodísticas Argentinas (ADEPA), Medianálisis, Bolivia Verifica, and United Nations Bolivia.
